

I always stick up for the Broadcasting industry; however, I am really upset by a decision recently by Sinclair Broadcasting to force their stations to show an anti-Kerry documentary right before the election.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Showing a political partisan piece is not in our interest - rather in the corporate interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
